Circus Day Foundation--- St. Louis' ONLY circus school presents its annual confluence of music and circus arts, Circus Harmony! This year's, Circus Harmony is titled Espressivo which means with expression. The acts are all new and really incredible. This show features twenty-nine children presenting feats of skill and daring that will just knock your socks off. These are ordinary children who happen to do extraordinary things right before your eyes.

Come see one person fly over 28 people, two contortionists, three flying chickens, a handstand done on top of four chairs, seven people flying from silks, twenty-one knives juggled at the same time, some really fun comedy acts, PLUS new musicians including a twelve year old Irish fiddle playing prodigy, a flamenco guitarist AND MORE.

This creative confluence of music and circus arts is for one weekend only. Don't miss it!
